Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for an analyst information. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for analyst information

- Manage, review and build IDS and IPS systems
- Be and escalation point and review escalated IDS/IPS alerts and logs
- Research next generation security issues, 0-day attacks and vulnerabilities
- Conduct review of firewall and perimeter rule sets
- Support DDoS protection infrastructure and operations
- Assist with strategic initiatives around future security infrastructure and tools - such as advanced threat protection, data encryption, and key management
- Perform security reviews of server / network / web application design within a virtualized environment and ensure compliance with security policies and best security practices
- Support vulnerability assessment functions and assist in 3rd party penetration testing
- Manage remediation of vulnerabilities through risk ranking and scoring
- Act as a key member of Incident Response team

Qualifications for analyst information

- Certified Ethical Hacker (CEH) certification a plus
- Experience streamlining operational capabilities through standardization and automation
- Must have a BA or BS degree equivalent and 6+ years related experience in Information Systems, Computer Science or a related field
- Certification must be obtained within 6 months of hire

- May lead a team focused on VBA projects, processes, and/or problem resolution