Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of analyst, infrastructure. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for analyst, infrastructure

- Assists more senior members of the middleware team with the installation, configuration and development of middleware utility programs and related distributed system software on multiple mainframe/distributed hardware/software environments
- Troubleshoot and review software and hardware related issues
- Develop operational practice for technologies including Opscode Chef, multiple private and Public Cloud platforms, VmWare, JBoss, Tomcat, Apache, Sensu, Splunk, RabbitMQ, IBM MQ, Graphite, Oracle 11g
- Focus on building solutions from scratch using leading open-sourced methodologies and building quality solutions that may be open-sourced such as Opscode Chef cookbooks, via the Apache 2.0 license
- Participate in a L2-L-3 rotating on-call schedule
- Manage 822 & TWIST BSB
- Support Treasury projects and initiatives
- Drive reduction in complexity and standardization of the Middleware Application Hosting estate
- Act in a liaison capacity between the appropriate business and technology departments
- Assist with the prioritization of system enhancements and coordinate deployment dates

Qualifications for analyst, infrastructure

- Strong communication skills with experience managing development cycles and project management
- Bachelor Degree or equivalent in a related field or equivalent education and experience
- Must be a certified in Aruba/Airwaves technologies
- One to five years of IT support experience and a minimum of one to two year Aruba support experience
- Any Service desk tool experience with complete understanding of ticket life cycle a plus