

Example of Analyst, Portfolio Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for an analyst, portfolio. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for analyst, portfolio

- Help design and prepare financial acumen training for technology leaders
- Lead process improvements to streamline monthly reporting processes
- Support Portfolio Specialists with market and fund data requests including creating impactful charts and presentations
- Write and take ownership of newsletter content and draft summaries of conference calls
- Support the development and facilitation of PM community meetings and workshops
- Analyze portfolio via internal tool sets and reports
- Facilitates the overall business development of clientele by developing Asset Allocation proposals, performing analysis of the investment portfolios of potential clients, and executing marketing strategies to attract new clients
- Screens new client prospects, developed through leads and referrals, to determine suitability for addition to group
- Research and analyze new and existing clientele and provide recommendations and or/updates to the IR about new opportunities, changes to product, or general matters of significance that may have an impact to the business
- Manage risk and ensure adherence to company policies and regulations in day-to-day business activity

Qualifications for analyst, portfolio

- Professional and articulate communication skills verbally and in writing
- Attention to detail when analyzing and checking reports, files, problems,
Must be able to work in a fast-paced, stressful environment Must be able to meet the schedule of several concurrent issues and priorities
- 3-5 years of securities and financial markets experience
- Experience working with sub-advisors within a multi-manager offering