Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of analyst tech. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for analyst tech

- Communicate status of project with senior associates, managers and clients
- Sets up or arranges work environments DC2
- Provides Expert Product Knowledge
- Ideal candidate should have strong PeopleSoft or Enterprise HR/Payroll technology
- 3-5 years of experience with direct, hands on management of 3rd Party Offshore Vendors
- Customer facing, technical support, focused on Workplace technologies listed below
- Call out to users and otherwise follow-up with them directly for more complex issues
- Collaborate with domestic and international technology teams in order to drive issue resolution on behalf of customers
- Weekend shift work on a weekly basis
- Review and analyze due diligence data from a variety of sources

Qualifications for analyst tech

- Understand and communicate complex and technical information clearly and concisely, adjusting language and terminology to the needs of the customer (internal and external) in a professional manner
- Individual contributor role, with demonstrated mastery of an area of specialization broad exposure to general business functions

- Familiarity with all phases of the development lifecycle, analysis, design, build, test, deploy
- Ability to meet priority deadlines in a fast paced environment
- Team player, highly motivated and a self learner