Our company is looking to fill the role of anesthesia technician. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don’t fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for anesthesia technician

- Cleans, sterilizes and sets up all anesthesia equipment
- Assists in the preparation of scheduled, emergent and urgent surgical procedures involving anesthesia care providers by ensuring necessary equipment and supplies are available, in working order & in proper location
- Maintenance of Equipment – Maintains an efficient level of anesthesia equipment, spinal nerve block and epidural sets with an assortment of cannulas, endotracheal tubes, masks, oral and nasal airways, ample drugs, EKG pads and strippers, and all other equipment which are essential to start the day’s surgical schedule
- Provide safe, efficient and cost effective support in anesthesia for all surgical cases ranging from infants to geriatrics
- Troubleshoot malfunctioning equipment, ventilators and monitors
- Prepare and set intravenous (IV) lines
- Calibrate and record the anesthesia monitors for accuracy
- Changes breathing tubing between cases, empties trash bins and changes suction canisters and tubing
- Assembles and maintains standardized procedure kits for blocks, central lines, arterial line, blood product infusions and fiber optic scopes
- Maintains adequate par-levels for non-stock supplies and communicates any shortages to the Surgical Materials Specialist

Qualifications for anesthesia technician
- Assists as needed with placement of pressure lines and blood patch procedures
- Ensure all faxes and other communications between the RC, the lead node, and the data management centers adhere to federal regulations
- Maintains full knowledge of HIPAA regulations
- Previous anesthesia technician experience preferred
- Equipment Sanitation
- At least one year work experience in a direct patient care capacity or in central materials services sterilizing equipment