Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for an anesthesia technician. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for anesthesia technician

- Ensures timely fill-up of anesthesia carts and room turnover
- PCA Accounting
- Laryngoscope collection, distribution, and clean up
- Cleans and maintains emergency carts (airway, epidural, trauma, peds, L&D & specialty)
- Assists the Anesthesiologist in providing care to the patient by giving assistance to the Anesthesiologist as requested, ordering, stocking and cleaning Anesthesia areas, in the surgical Services and Labor and Deliver departments, overseeing of drugs and solutions, other assigned duties in Surgical Services
- Under the direction of the Anesthesiologist, Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist, Perioperative Director, Manager, or R.N
- Performs cleaning duties, stocks supplies and drugs used in the department
- Insures that minor equipment is functional, assists in set up of pressure transducer bags, massive blood & fluid warmers, and provides first line repair of hemodynamic monitors and anesthesia delivery systems
- Demonstrates the ability to follow direction from anesthesia provider and assist with preparation of patient, including applying monitoring equipment, assist with anesthesia procedures, patient positioning, and transport
- Demonstrates successful communication skills with anesthesia providers and O.R

Qualifications for anesthesia technician
- Previous anesthesia tech experience preferred
- Of growth and development and communication appropriate to the age of the
- Basic life support (BCLS) certification
- Minimum of 1 year current Operating Room experience
- High school graduate and six months to one year of previous experience as an Anesthesia Technician