Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of anesthesia technician. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for anesthesia technician

- Responds quickly and calmly in emergency situations
- Supports the anesthesia provider by setting up IV's, central venous lines and arterial lines
- Responsible for care and maintenance of anesthesia supplies and equipment in surgery area
- Consult Operating Room schedule to determine supply and equipment needs for procedures
- Assist anesthesia providers using aseptic or sterile technique with non-invasive and invasive patient procedures including peripheral and/or central intravenous and/or arterial line placement
- Assist anesthesia providers with physiological monitoring of patients notifying the anesthesia provider(s) of abnormal changes in vital signs and/or physical appearance of the patient
- May provide verbal and written feedback of interviewees and peers as appropriate and as indicated by supervisor
- May serve as an instructor/facilitator of educational in-services for other anesthesia technicians
- May act as role model for orientation and training of anesthesia technicians and other health care team members
- May assume anesthesia technician charge role in managing daily work schedule of anesthesia technicians and directing care to provide an efficient and safe environment
• Knowledge of medical/surgical and/or anesthetic terminology
• Must be able to work independently with good organizational skills
• Must be able to work quickly and accurately under pressure
• Must be able to work in urgent/stressful situations
• Must be able to see well and read in dim light
• Maintain patient safety