Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of architecture, senior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for architecture, senior

- Conduct Project Manager meetings - weekly
- Conduct studio meetings – monthly or bi-monthly
- Staffing – ensure all technical staff maintain a billable status
- 7+ years architecture project management experience preferred
- Partner with senior IT leadership to ensure alignment of the IT strategy with Technology guiding principles and overall Enterprise goals
- Manage assignment of resources to necessary priorities as set by Portfolio Management
- Attend handover meeting by Bid Team with Project Manager / Commercial Manager and receive scope, fee budget, organisation chart and outline time schedule
- To be the point of contact for project inputs and flow of information between document control and all design disciplines
- Manage design stage submissions to Client including QA/QC processes, checking & verification, APM/ADM to assist depending upon size, complexity and time schedule of the project
- Become expert on server side development frameworks maintained by the group, especially the ones written in 'C', and be prepared to take ownership of its operational duties

Qualifications for architecture, senior

- A minimum of 8 years of Information Technology experience is required

- Architecture and application lifecycle management methodologies is required
- Application, Solution, Data, Integration, Security and Network Architecture knowledge is required
- Ability to manage and direct multiple engagements developing key architecture artifacts and standards while following an architecture development processes
- SAP Architecture with a concentration in finance being preferred