

Example of Asset Management Specialist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for an asset management specialist. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for asset management specialist

- Produce forecasts of vacancy rates, rent growth, and other key metrics for specific investible markets
- Provide bottom-up market reviews on new and existing investments in collaboration with the transaction team for Investment Committee
- Monitor trends for listed real estate companies operating with the Apartment sector and collaborate with securities analysts on the implications of these trends
- Build relationships with existing and potential clients through meetings, presentations and the provision of research insights
- Develop contacts with sector and market experts and industry bodies, data providers and consultants
- Requires technical, analytical, and operational knowledge to make decisions based on the outcome
- Support various software delivery platforms
- Be familiar with change control policies and practices
- Document best practices and procedures
- Work as a team member on a fast paced team

Qualifications for asset management specialist

- IAITAM (trained or willing to be trained)
- Internal ITAM Process and related procedures (trained or willing to be

- Multiple positions require Spanish or Portuguese oral and written proficiency
- Interpersonal and communication (written and verbal) skills sufficient to interact with associates at all levels of the organization financial advisors and institutional clients
- Previous experience in RFP writing within an institutional asset management firm