

Example of Assistant Director, Nursing Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of assistant director, nursing. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for assistant director, nursing

- Identifies and/or collaborates in development of the policies, standards and programs needed to support a nursing practice and patient care
- Assess the impact of research protocols and facilitates their implementation
- Plans for education of the staff regarding quality driven goals and objectives, interprets same to staff, and takes responsibility for the planning, implementation, operation and evaluation of major divisional quality initiatives in collaboration with the Director of Nursing Education
- Promotes the application of information systems
- Coordinates and promotes activities, committees and programs with an emphasis on improving patient care delivery
- Coordinates and promotes activities and programs contributing to Nursing scholarship, , publication in Nursing journals and presentation of original research at appropriate conferences
- Recommends topics for primary and evidence-based research
- Identifies and influences multidisciplinary committees which develop alternate methods or components of patient care delivery
- This position will also be responsible for QAPI/ Infection Control/ Wound Care and Staffing
- This position provides care and services in a safe and efficient manner, and is responsible to perform the following according to location standards, procedures and individualized resident care plans

- Experience working in a technology-driven enterprise preferred
- Must possess a current, unencumbered, active license to practice as Registered Nurse in the state of Wisconsin
- ADON experience a plus
- Baccalaureate degree in Nursing or related field required
- Master of Science degree in Nursing or related field preferred
- Effective management skills necessary to organize direct and evaluate the activities of patient care off shift operations