Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of associate, corporate finance. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for associate, corporate finance

- Work with other groups as part of the customer relationship management and business development functions
- Work as part of an integrated team on strategic planning and execution of the firm's CCAR and DFAST balance sheet and liquidity projections and related exercises
- Drive analyses on the business impact of recent regulatory and industry developments related to CCAR
- Assist in drafting written sections of the CCAR and DFAST submissions
- Manage the Risk and Control Self-Assessment (RCSA) for RCMO, including the Corporate Capital Stress Testing (CCAR/DFAST), Basel Measurement and Analytics, Regulatory Capital Policy and Oversight and Capital Controllers groups
- Stay up to date on Firm wide requirements for RCSA, SOX and CCAP programs
- Plan and track RCSA , CCAP and SOX activities for the year and participate in discussions with management around the plan and status
- Assist management in determining if process documentation is adequate and provide insight when processes are evaluated, redesigned or enhanced
- Focus on key liquidity management duties including currency mismatch / funding management
- Monitor liquidity/funding risks relating to the firm's business activities,

Qualifications for associate, corporate finance

- A newly qualified professional with a recognised accounting and/or tax qualification
- An individual focussed on operating within and enhancing the existing tax risk and control framework
- Experience of working in a tax department of a US investment bank an advantage
- Experience of Alphatax and Onesource Corporation Tax software
- Skilled in Essbase for financial data preferred
- Experience in database structures (preferred)