Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of associate data analyst. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for associate data analyst

- Collaborate with the sales, product, tech, and retail teams to analyze workflow improvements and communications with brands
- Work cross functionally on high impact projects that help increase efficiency of data processing
- Undertake any other projects that may arise - be willing to step outside your comfort zone and learn quickly!
- Experience of Q (KDB+), R, a plus
- Committed to delivering quality solutions using best practice methodology
- Keen to take responsibility and ownership of problems and deliverables
- Able to multitask and prioritize across a large portfolio of work
- Able to work effectively as part of a global multicultural team
- Able to provide authority on the appropriate data to be used for particular use-case
- Detailed understanding of client attributes assignment data and the flow of information through Firm systems (DPS, SAP R/3, BW)

Qualifications for associate data analyst

- Big picture thinker who is also detail and solution-oriented
- Team-oriented with the ability to work in team of four to six people including on-site and remote staff
- Diplomatic and client focused
- Bachelor's degree in a technical field (statistics, mathematics, science,

- 5+ years of experience in a business or data analyst role with a Bachelor's degree or 3+ years of experience in a business or data analyst role with a Master's degree
- Analyze and document trade, transactions, and positions business and data requirements