Our company is looking to fill the role of automated tester. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for automated tester

- Create and maintain test cases, test data, test plans and defect reports
- Participate in early story development and design sessions to suggest and assist in acceptance criteria, boundary tests, and automation plans
- Identify, communicate and mitigate risks within each software release
- Perform thorough testing on web, mobile apps, such as IOS, Android, OTT devices
- Perform thorough testing on MAC/Windows based browsers
- Providing input to engineering and development teams regarding software quality practices and test coverage
- Coordination of software releases from design review through release
- Coordination of software builds and releases
- Regression functional and performance testing
- Execution of the test plan including both automated and manual testing where applicable

Qualifications for automated tester

- 4 years of hands on experience in writing / reviewing software test plans regression test plan, acceptance test plan
- Knowledge of continuous integration using different tools Jenkins preferred
- 8 years overall IT experience with a focus on software testing
- 5 years of hands-on experience with testing of firmware applications used inside embedded controls
- Experience in design and development of automated test architectures for

- In-depth understanding of different types of embedded testing (functional testing, stress testing, performance testing, User Interface testing)