

Example of Behavioral Health Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of behavioral health. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for behavioral health

- Assesses supervisees' clinical performance on a long-term basis and makes recommendations for or against credentialing process
- Monitors client welfare by de-briefing, educating and coaching supervisees
- Provides verbal and written formative and summative evaluations to supervisees
- Ensures compliance with relevant legal, ethical and professional standards for clinical practice
- Works collaboratively with all levels from staff to senior leadership to recommend, develop, and implement Behavioral Health clinical programs
- Develops and presents assessments, gap analyses, and quality reports
- Leads and facilitates group meetings
- Provides support to project teams
- Researches and provides potential ROI information pertinent to behavioral health projects
- Provides guidance, recommendations and progress reports throughout pilot/project to ensure successful completion

Qualifications for behavioral health

- Provides focused therapeutic interventions for clients and families to enhance and foster the client's optimal functioning and coping both in the community and at home
- Assesses client needs, service availability and appropriateness of services

- Consults with department and organization leadership team members about behavioral services and suggested areas of outcome and program evaluation
- Documents the clients' progress and diagnostic information in the client's electronic medical record
- Minimum of 3-years experience, working with children and families, preferred