V

Example of Biology Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for a biology. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for biology

- Contribute to the management and performance of the Biology department through participation at relevant meetings and taking on selected responsibilities relevant to the role
- Utilize various immunological techniques including but not limited to cell sorting, multicolor flow-cytometry, ELISpot, and high-throughput ELISAbased assays
- Manage screening throughput based on sample availability
- Carry out experiments with limited supervision and take on project management responsibilities
- Experimental troubleshooting and development of improved workflows suitable for research and clinical application
- Ability to coordinate and self-direct assigned field investigation tasks and ability to serve as a field lead capable of organizing and conducting wetland delineations in PA
- Conducting field and office activities, protocol-level field surveys, technical report writing other technical tasks
- Preparing and performing quality control of high-quality documents and other technical reports for local and regional projects
- Processing data collection and analysis, with the use of Microsoft Office
- Preparation, set-up and maintenance of teaching labs in the areas of ecology, anatomy, plant and animal physiology, exercise physiology and kinesiology

Qualifications for biology

- Evidence of experience and proficiency in the utilization of the laboratory and laboratory equipment
- Desire and demonstrated ability to participate actively in department, school and college committees
- Two years of recent full time or part time equivalent experience teaching Anatomy, lecture and laboratory, at the college level
- Master's in Biology with a minimum of 18 graduate hours in biology or related disciplines
- · Previous experience teaching at the college level preferred