

Example of Building Electrician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of building electrician. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for building electrician

- Installing and maintaining, repairing building electrical distribution systems
- Monitor the operations and make customer approved adjustments of chilled water systems, heat exchangers, CRAC Units, HVAC, electrical systems, emergency back-up systems, hot water systems, pumps, valves, filters and other mechanical and electrical equipment
- Installing outlets, disconnects, motor starters, inside and outside lighting systems, frequency drives, building safety equipment, fans, pumps, and motors, and other electrical-related systems, fire alarm systems
- Maintain and repair the mechanical, electrical, security and fire protection systems that protect and support business critical information systems (servers, mainframes, etc)
- A working understanding of commercial three phase electrical systems
- Disassemble, clean, repair, and reassemble a variety of electrical appliances, controls and equipment following established procedures
- Diagnose and correct malfunctions in interior and exterior electrical circuits
- Test electrical equipment to identify and fix malfunctions
- Assist with job site and general safety, including general ground support, staging materials, and general site preparation and clean-up
- Ensure that all equipment stays in line with electrical codes, regulations, and standards

Qualifications for building electrician

- Position may require employees to work in a 24/7 rotational schedule
- 1 year of related experience or trade school training
- Allergens may exist
- Journeyman card or equivalent