

Example of Business Analyst, Financial Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of business analyst, financial. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for business analyst, financial

- Identify, promote, and support improvements and insights to the business leaders to improve performance
- Prepare various models for cost-benefit, ROI, ROA, bidding and pricing efforts
- Support benchmarking initiatives as they relate to the line of business being supported
- Successfully keep both Finance Management and Business Management informed timely, accurately, and succinctly
- Lead the global IT operational planning and allocation process
- Manage the financials and the consolidation of the IT Capital and Depreciation
- Lead the effort to drive financial efficiencies across IT and major IT service providers by identifying process improvements and automation opportunities
- Facilitate project approval by partnering with project team to incorporate financial perspective
- Evaluate monthly project and operational forecasts to identify material risks and opportunities which should be realized
- Ensure all IT vendor purchase and payment requests are managed and coordinated with the appropriate business partners

- Bachelor or Master's degree in Finance, Accounting or Economics
- Strong client focus, achieving high level of satisfaction from internal- and external clients
- Knowledge of IT services is preferable, but not a requirement
- Analytical, with the ability to see both details and the overall picture
- Organized and able to manage parallel tasks and deadlines
- Ability to communicate at an executive level in English