

Example of Business Analyst SAP Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a business analyst SAP. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for business analyst SAP

- Challenge both business and IT to come up with the Business Process solutions that can meet business needs effectively and efficiently and use SAP configuration to align business requirements
- Work with various business across all lines of business (Finance, Sales, Customer Service, HR, Order Management, MFG, Supply Chain) users to define and implement business process improvements using SAP ECC 6.0
- Train users to effectively use the SAP system
- Work closely with other business analysts, team leads, developers and technical team IS members located in the Corporate Applications Group
- Build global consensus and common practices among local and global operations using persuasion, teamwork, and cooperation
- Provide analytical support in the development and implementation of SAP system projects/upgrades
- Coordination of all key business users to support testing efforts of system projects and new business solutions
- Facilitate, direct and document business requirements for work to be done (either for projects or support/work requests)
- Work closely with software vendors to ensure continual support of systems
- Documents functional requirements

Qualifications for business analyst SAP

- Experience using a cloud based integration layer preferred (GXS, OpenText, SPS Commerce)
- Possess understanding of various SAP modules (SD, MM, LE, FI, CO)
- Setup VAN, AS2, SFTP, connectivity preferred
- Monitor VAN and overall network and system landscape
- Develop, enhance, and maintain EDI mapping requirement for trading partners and transactions based on requirements