

Example of Business Modelling Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of business modelling. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for business modelling

- Review the final testing results and testing sign-off documentation against the end user acceptance test criteria to ensure a smooth transition when handing over back to the users
- Lead the handover of the MoSes models back to the business and provide the necessary user training
- Support the MCoE Business Analyst Lead to develop new or revised processes or procedures for the MCoE Business Analysis function
- Ensure a clear and deep understanding of MCoE models
- Ensure an understanding of the wider systems landscape
- Demonstrate in-depth knowledge using business analysis concepts within an actuarial/insurance landscape
- Design and delivery of end user acceptance test sign-off criteria with the business users
- Ensure all business processes within the MCoE Business Analyst team are in line with standard practice and that adequate controls and documentation are in place
- Support the MCoE Business Analyst Lead to plan, conduct and supervise projects and assignments
- Responsible for ensuring your own performance and delivery is at an increasingly high quality

Qualifications for business modelling

- MSc, PhD or MBA (preferred)

- Strong Knowledge in SQL DBA Programming
- Have a proven track record delivering top quality modelling solutions within a project based, client focused environment
- Experience of building, maintaining and effectively managing client relationships