Our innovative and growing company is looking for a business systems analyst senior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for business systems analyst senior

- Become a process and subject matter expert
- Gather and interpret reporting and analytic requirements into a deliverable that meets specifications
- Access large volumes of data from multiple sources and develop reporting or other database applications
- Improve operational efficiency of existing access databases, reports and infrastructure
- Synthesize requirements and develop recommendations that best meet the objectives of the business
- Communicate with business partners and the business analytic team on recommendations and analysis
- Responsible for communicating with Business Partners on Incident and Problem tickets and prioritization of items for production releases
- Collaborates with technical team to ensure that business prioritize are understood and that timelines are met
- Works on project teams that are developing or modifying very complex information systems
- Work with product management and delivery teams to support portfolio managers and analysts

Qualifications for business systems analyst senior

- Experience with SQL and business intelligence tools, such as Cognos, Business Objects
- Have an attitude to think outside the box, question the obvious and open to learn and work on multiple systems
- Fundamentals of Privacy & Information Risk Management
- Anti-Money Laundering and Anti-Terrorist Financing Program