Our growing company is looking for a business systems analyst senior. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for business systems analyst senior

- Lead technical teams in analyzing system issues, formulating, developing, testing and implementing solutions
- Provide consulting services to project teams on project initiatives
- Develop innovative ideas to streamline support operations and reduce cost
- You understand the business domain and can clearly articulate what is required to be delivered
- Documenting functional and/or technical specifications as required and consistent with company standards and consistent with our Change Framework
- Managing system configuration / system settings processes to ensure fulfillment of business requirements and/or applicable application requirements
- Designing, documenting, developing and executing test automation plans from business requirements
- Coordinating activities with Continuous Improvement leads and other developers to create and deploy Process Automation solutions
- Managing assigned project tasks consistent with project directives
- Working with business line and partners to identify and design appropriate automation workflows

Qualifications for business systems analyst senior

- Working knowledge of system architecture and COTS/GOTS application

- Proven track record of successful business analysis engagements with medium to large projects
- Comfort in gathering requirements for software-based projects, and business process improvements
- Defining implementation procedures
- Experience - 5 years of experience including formulating and defining systems scopes and objective, systems development lifecycle, requirements gathering and design
- Bachelor's degree, preferably in computer science, business, or other relevant field