

Example of Capital Equipment Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a capital equipment. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for capital equipment

- Responsible for monitoring, organizing and maintaining personal trunk stock and assisting the ILAB Engineer with maintaining the ILAB area and spare parts
- Responsible for customer satisfaction on BSC equipment and BSC service
- Develop sales opportunities for SMRT product lines within the defined territory
- Act as key contact for account and liaise with appropriate personnel to communicate
- Develop, plan and support Key Accounts if designed to do so
- Provide input to Product Line Managers to address product offering
- Develop a sales and service plan for designated territory
- Assist as required in any physical inventory counts (especially any consignment stocks)
- Ensure Customer is in compliance with SMRT terms and conditions of sale
- Liaise between Customers and SMRT to ensure all issues are settled in a timely manner

Qualifications for capital equipment

- Five to eight years related experience in manufacturing engineering working in a medical device environment
- Worked as a project lead developing and improving capital equipment repair

- Implemented Customer product return mitigations performing failure analysis and identifying root cause of failure modes
- Produced statistical sampling plans and performed statistical analysis on test data
- Implemented mechanical, electrical and/or software design test fixtures and specifications
- Performed IQ, OQ, PQ for production test equipment, generated written reports, documentation and formal presentations