Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a cardiac nurse. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don’t fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for cardiac nurse

- ACLS and PALS within 1 year of hire
- One year of RN experience in an acute care setting strongly preferred
- Provides patient’s initial orientation and on-going monthly assessments during rehab
- Develops a rehabilitation plan that addresses the patient's risk stratification, risk factors, exercise and functional status
- Develops patient rehabilitation discharge goals that promote transitioning the patient back into community health and exercise resources
- Communicates rehabilitation plan and discharge to ordering physicians
- Provides and documents patient care per department policy and external regulatory requirements
- Performs patient education classes on risk factors of heart disease
- May be required to make critical decisions concerning the initiative of emergency medical procedures and protocols
- Performs and assists the Nurse Manager with other duties as they arise in the outpatient clinic setting

Qualifications for cardiac nurse

- Ability to work 36 hours rotating shifts days and nights
- PALS and ACLS are required (if not current, must obtain within one year of employment)
- Minimum of 1 year of acute care nursing experience required
- 1 year professional nursing acute care nursing experience preferred
- Rience requirement) respond to patients in a timely manner and access all areas of the unit