Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of cardiac nurse. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for cardiac nurse

- Responsibilities also include nursing supervision for inpatient/outpatient cardiac stress testing according to defined protocols, data collection for cardiology and stroke quality initiatives (ACC/AHA Data Registries and Core Measures) and provide nursing support in the CV prep and recovery unit and TIA clinic as needed
- The RN participates in departmental and hospital performance improvement and continuous quality improvement (CQI) activities
- Identify care needs for patient populations at the unit level
- Provide direction and guidance in the proper use, care and control of populations
- Participate in educational activities, departmental committees, research projects and other health-related projects as assigned
- Provide leadership at a unit level for initiatives designed to improve the quality of care or clinical outcomes for populations of patients and growth of others
- Using time constructively to accurately perform and complete work assignments
- Dressing neatly and professionally according to Hospital and Departmental dress codes

Qualifications for cardiac nurse

- Min 1 year experience as a licensed RN
• Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) OR ADN with previous acute care nursing experience
• 1 year of professional (RN) nursing experience
• Seeking minimum of one year nursing experience
• Minimum one year hospital acute care Nursing experience is required