

Example of Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of certified registered nurse anesthetist. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for certified registered nurse anesthetist

- The CRNA must have a fundamental and foundational understanding of the potential medical complications associated with anesthesia and how to readily correct any complications which might occur
- One of the responsibilities of a CRNA is vigilance in physiologically monitoring the well-being of the patient while under anesthesia to reduce the risk of any complications arising and to allow for quick diagnosis and corrective actions if a complication ensues
- A CRNA is responsible for maintaining his/her peri-operative anesthesia medical records, either electronic or paper, per the policy of the facility
- To provide the highest quality of care, A CRNA will collaborate with other health care professionals, including surgeons and primary care doctors, when the patient's condition necessitates
- The CRNA's responsibilities include providing pre-operative and intra-operative, , post-operative patient care and evaluation
- The CRNA may be called upon to be responsible for assisting in the training of other medical personnel in CPR, anesthesia and respiratory care
- Board Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist
- Function as a clinical instructor for nurse anesthesia graduate students
- Initiate venous or radial artery cannulation or central line insertion as indicated
- Assess, monitor, and provide IV sedation, conduction anesthesia or general anesthesia for patients

-
- Valid State of Delaware license as a Registered Nurse
 - Valid State of Delaware APRN license as a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist
 - Prescriptive Authority of Delaware – confirmation noted on Delaware Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist
 - Board Certified as a Registered Nurse Anesthetist
 - Valid Re-certification from the Council of Recertification of the American Association of Nurse Anesthetist (AANA)
 - Controlled Substance license of Delaware (within 90 days of proctoring period)