

Example of City Planner Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

V

Our growing company is looking for a city planner. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for city planner

- Contribute to the development of standardized historical cost databases and application tools to aid future estimates
  - Analyze business processes, conduct special studies, develop alternatives and present recommendations to management and influence management decisions
  - Identify and recommend long-range asset data management and system improvements to strategically balance risk and reward
  - Develop financial forecasts for districts
  - Implement optimum life cycle and companion cost models for transmission and distribution assets
  - Manage the budget process to ensure that all stakeholders have their needs met
  - Report complex financial and operational performance data in simple terms, and communicate throughout the organization
  - Collaborate with operation managers and area engineers to develop and review ER's
  - Research and analyze relevant data, evaluate complex situations, develop creative alternatives, provide recommendations, and negotiate and influence outcomes
  - Audits business system data and looks for improvements in actuals against targets
-

- Confirm orders when the Traffic Coordinator is not present
- Monitor inventory control and drive process improvement in this area
- Member of APICS a plus
- MRP - will have prior knowledge
- SAP – knowledge of will be a plus for this position
- Experience within a Materials/Production/Inventory Control department in a manufacturing facility