Our company is looking to fill the role of client security. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for client security

- Create, develop and execute innovative solutions leading to standardized and consistent responses to clients and third parties regarding the firm's information security practices
- Oversee onsite assessments, provide input for security controls with contractual agreements and manage the firm's standard information gathering questionnaire
- Host meetings with clients, respond to ad-hoc requests and client questionnaires, and create system vulnerability messaging to clients
- Lead the creation, review and approval of security whitepapers
- Coach, counsel, develop, assigned personnel to assist with their opportunity for advancement/promotability
- Successful candidate will need to collaborate with BT internal sales channels to help manage and maintain relationships with customers, suppliers, and stakeholders
- He/she must possess the appropriate communication skills and ability to motivate both clients and internal stakeholders
- The successful candidate will be responsible for driving the effective execution of large projects, dealing with all relevant issues, often without daily guidance of the program manager
- The role holder will need to meet objectives, solve problems and further success by applying industry, applications and technical knowledge through the definition of high level solutions
- Coordinate and/or conduct site-specific OJT, client-specific training, and annual refresher training for security personnel, meet Allied Universals

Qualifications for client security

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and CISSP certification
- Experience leading and managing a team with the ability to set goals, develop a high performing team, and interface with any level within the organization
- Demonstrated knowledge of industry authoritative sources such as COBIT, NIST, ISO standards
- Experience managing information security functions, including governance, frameworks, processes, tools, scorecards and dashboards
- Working knowledge of RSA's Archer Solutions
- Experience selling security solutions, software and services