

Example of Clinical Advisor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a clinical advisor. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for clinical advisor

- Assists with coordinating "Job Shadowing" for NP hosts
- May contribute to individual clinician MAP
- Provides valuable customer service to medical students in semesters 5-10 via telephone and the effective use of the RightNow system as the sole means of student communication
- Provides counseling to students on how they can best develop those outcomes frequently used in medical residency applications as a measure of a candidate's likelihood to succeed in that particular residency
- Presents the Clinical Sciences Orientation to 5th semester students in St
- Responds to various inquiries regarding state and federal regulatory issues which will impact a student's ability to practice medicine following graduation
- RN with a minimum of 5 years' experience in patient transition, discharge planning or case management
- Comfort utilizing various technologies, with preference to those who have participated in a software implementation project
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office and health-care information systems
- Strong communication, organization, time-management and project-management skills

Qualifications for clinical advisor

- Execution of projects and enhancements within the Cerner environment to support the business needs of clinical departments
- Provide application support and maintenance for Cerner applications that are

- Provide level 2 support in response to user problems and questions regarding system functionality, operations, input/output, reporting and general operational procedures
- Work with business users to identify requirements for maintaining application tables, dictionaries, and parameters required for system operation and configuration
- Creating ad hoc reports and data extracts required by business customers
- Build and maintain tasks and procedures associated with work flow