

Example of Clinical Director Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for a clinical director. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for clinical director

- Active participant managing and planning Business Plan and Strategic Plan processes with VP, Medical Affairs
- Serves as facilitator of multi-disciplinary project teams
- Facilitates large hospital-wide, system-wide, or national/international quality projects, assisting senior leadership in maximizing quality outcomes and the efficient use of resources
- Provides consulting advice to top nursing, administrative and medical management, including hospital management teams
- Guides junior staff members in performing quality improvement activities
- Keeps management informed of project progress and problems, particularly as to needed changes in schedule, resources, or opportunities
- Serve as medical monitor with primary responsibility for patient safety and conduct of assigned trials overall data interpretation and safety surveillance
- Establish and approve scientific methods for design and implementation of applicable clinical protocols, data collection systems, and final reports
- Supervise project team members in planning, conducting and evaluating clinical trials
- Demonstrates the ability to create a shared vision

Qualifications for clinical director

- RN or higher clinical training with 5-8 years of clinical experience
- Manages the design, implementation, interpretation, reporting and publishing of clinical research studies to support cancer diagnostic product

- Must possess knowledge of direct clinical services emergency procedures, supervision management and marketing
- Must possess demonstrated knowledge of and ability to use Microsoft Office and Outlook
- 5 years in a management or supervisory role