Our company is hiring for a clinical director. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for clinical director

- Active participation in clinical design, development and support launch of pilots/proof of concepts focused on improvement of health outcomes including increasing the likelihood of desired outcomes [compared to a baseline] and reducing health disparities among specified populations
- Collaborating with Informatics/Analytics and other key metrics partners to understand results and define areas of clinical opportunity- advancing the performance of our programs and services
- Service utilization patterns of clinical outcomes
- High dollar claim trend patterns
- Quality outcomes
- Negotiate and manage ongoing vendor budget negotiation and change control process
- Oversee and lead supplier governance activities
- Create, track, and report vendor KPIs and performance metrics
- Lead and manage vendor selection process
- Define and document SOP for vendor selection process and changes and/or revisions throughout study duration

Qualifications for clinical director

- Outpatient and/or multi-specialty medical group/practice experience
- Bachelors Degree in a health care or other scientific discipline with 12 years

- 5+ years of Clinical Research experience obtained in the Pharmaceutical Industry and excellent knowledge of the drug development process
- Experience of conducting clinical trials in metabolic/endocrine areas and experience in conducting clinical studies for thrombotic disorders would be desirable
- Comprehensive and detailed experience of clinical trial design, implementation and sponsor/site interactions in conduct of clinical trials
- Must have experience of working in a leadership role within the development project team member of a core project team, sub-team leader