

Example of Clinical Pharmacist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of clinical pharmacist. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for clinical pharmacist

- Issue resolutions
- Provide Medication Therapy Management, specific to ESRD patients
- Work with patient and caregivers to identify reasons and barriers to adherence
- Assists with quality improvement initiatives, inventory and drug file maintenance
- Assesses members medication regimens for indication, effectiveness, safety and adherence
- Conducts case reviews to identify, resolve and prevent medication-related problems
- Participates in member care conferences and contributes to the member plan of care
- Collaborates with the medical and program leadership in developing medication management protocols and education for clinical staff
- Participates in the multi-disciplinary team, providing expert consultations to optimize member benefits and access to medications
- Confers with prescribers to improve member medication regimens as appropriate

Qualifications for clinical pharmacist

- Must demonstrate record of success in working with physicians and within

- Successful completion of an accredited hospital pharmacy residency program, or 2 years of hospital-based clinical pharmacy experience
- 2 years pharmacy practice experience in retail, hospital, and/or pharmacy setting or equivalent
- 1 year managed care pharmacy practice and/or third-party reimbursement or drug purchasing experience preferred
- Current unrestricted license from the Ohio State Board of Pharmacy
- Comprehensive understanding of managed care pharmacy, including formulary management, drug utilization management, and/or quality assurance programs