

Example of Clinical Pharmacology Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of clinical pharmacology. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for clinical pharmacology

- Provide high quality discipline expertise and contributions to Clinical Pharmacology Development Strategies of your projects
- Develops productive working relationships with hospital colleagues and with colleagues at the Unit and other groups in the company to facilitate the smooth operation of the group
- Liaises effectively with all members of the Unit and makes a positive contribution towards team spirit in the Unit
- Actively contributes to the development and review of Standard Operating Procedures, Working Instructions, policies and guidelines
- Makes an active contribution to the validation and implementation of new systems, methods and assessments
- Complies with national and international laws and regulatory body guidelines, and laws on health and safety at work, fire prevention and other appropriate legislation
- Assists the CPU Management Team
- Is supervisor for all on-call temporary staff including those involved in the Clinic, the Recruitment Center, Flex-Lab, Cleanroom and Logistical Support Staff dedicated to the CPU
- Effectively contributing to interdisciplinary team meetings and, able to effectively leading sub-teams
- Anticipating program needs and problem-solve, sharing critical data within the team and the line and proactively proposing solutions

-
- English proficiency with strong presentation and communication skills
 - Ability and willingness to represent Clinical Pharmacology on project teams
 - Ability to work in a complex multi-disciplinary and global environment
 - Experience in designing and managing clinical studies
 - Hands on experience in non-compartmental, population, PK/PD analysis
 - Experience in specific therapeutic area(s) of interest (CNS, Respiratory diseases)