

Example of Clinical Professor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of clinical professor. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for clinical professor

- Review of student work and conferencing regularly with students outside of the classroom
- Coordinate the practicum, field and service learning experiences of the department
- Maintain contacts with local school districts in North Carolina
- Teach in various modalities
- Service to the Department, School, and University
- Serving as an instructor of record for and teaching in various courses in the PharmD curriculum
- Collaborating with instructors of record of supporting courses to ensure continuity of content
- Creating & offering relevant IPPE experiences
- Developing and implementing activities that meet college outcomes, and the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) curriculum standards
- Assessing student pharmacist clinical application/performance with IPPE

Qualifications for clinical professor

- Board certification or completion of an approved ABVO residency program and fulfillment of all credentialing requirements to take the American Board of Veterinary Ophthalmology (ABVO) certification exam
- 3 year fellowship in Gastroenterology along with a year of Transplant Hepatology Fellowship Training

- Doctorate in Counselor Education, preferably from a CACREP-accredited program
- License or/certification eligible in Florida as a marriage and family, mental health, or school counselor
- Ability to effectively teach in a Counselor Education preparation program