

Example of Clinical Specialist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of clinical specialist. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for clinical specialist

- Manages most activities without supervision
- Asserts own ideas and persuades others
- Contributes to short term planning and decisions for groups and/or projects
- Mentors others, including peers in other functions
- Independently estimates resources required
- Carries out tasks and activities that are defined by Manager and in local business/operating plans
- Willingness to travel approximately 10% (domestic and international)
- Operationalizes assessment initiatives through the assigned medical staff departments, PI teams, and/or service lines in order to evaluate effectiveness and potential opportunities for improvement
- Participates and/or coordinates the assigned hospital committees in an Organizational manner
- Collects/analyzes and maintains timely, accurate and reliable data for all customers, including assigned teams reflective of clinical systems and processes delivered

Qualifications for clinical specialist

- Assesses on a continuous basis, services, patient outcomes, quality control, customer satisfaction, staffing needs and operational effectiveness to ensure optimal care and delivery
- Ensures that internal controls are sufficient to provide for accurate complete

- Identifies need for changes in standards, programs and services and develops recommendations for consideration by the Supervisor
- Able to flourish in young international company experiencing significant growth
- Bachelors Degree (or higher) in Nursing/BSN (strongly preferred) or Bachelor's Degree in Health Information Management (RHIA)
- Professional certification (RHIA, RHIT, CPC, CPC-H, CPC-P or CCS-P) preferred or willingness to attend coding courses sponsored by the Company