

Example of Clinical Supervisor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a clinical supervisor. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for clinical supervisor

- Build learning into work performed by staff, such that each staff member gains an increasing understanding of how and why work is performed in the department and organization
- Responsible for monitoring the new or upgrading employee in the Clinical Evaluation process FTO and Orientation program
- Coordinate and conduct continuing education courses
- Assist in field personnel recruitment through involvement in area EMS classes and career days
- Act as the Facility Safety Office for the office
- Work in conjunction with the Physician to hire, fire, supervise and train all staff
- Assesses, diagnoses, treats, and monitors the treatment of common health problems in the homeless population within the scope of the nurse practitioner role in accordance with collaborative agreement and in accordance with Massachusetts law
- Serves as a professional resource to staff RNs and provides advice and guidance necessary to resolve complex client problems
- Provides on-call coverage as required
- Managing staff performance by maintaining and evaluating metrics, staff coaching and development

Qualifications for clinical supervisor

- Minimum of two (2) years of verifiable work experience providing services

- Must be able to travel between sites, staying overnight as necessary
- Must have or be progressing toward certification in a specialty of nursing related to the unit(s)/departments of responsibility
- 3 years' experience in clinical specialty preferred
- Minimum of two years current critical care or ED experience required