

Example of Clinical Technician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of clinical technician. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for clinical technician

- Assures that all monitoring equipment is in working order
- Acts as proactive liaison with other departments
- Perform various quality control procedures and record/monitor temperatures to maintain compliance with internal and external regulations
- Perform daily/weekly/monthly maintenance checks, including, but not limited to, eyewash, emergency lighting, emergency alarms
- Obtains relevant information on caller, , name, department, job, phone number
- Perform non-clinical (in vitro) drug metabolism and drug-drug interaction studies for pharmaceutical clients in accordance with study protocol and company standard operation procedures (SOPs)
- Responsibilities will include equipment set-up, calibration and operation
- Responsible for technical problem solving - performing preliminary data analysis for review by the Study Director
- Performs ECG's according to Department Policy and Procedures with 95-1% accuracy, as documented by coordinator and peer review
- Collects all ECG from ECG Department and Nursing areas

Qualifications for clinical technician

- Ability to assess, anticipate, and establish priorities in the coordination and accomplishment of all duties

- Graduate of a certified Dietetic Technician program, or at least enrolled in certified Dietetic Technician program, OR Bachelor's degree from a 4-year college or university in nutrition
- Demonstrated competence in health care setting for at least six months preferred
- Pediatric training or experience preferred