Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a cloud administrator. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for cloud administrator

- Responsible for administering cloud-based informatics solutions
- Troubleshoots issues, performing root cause analysis, and implements corrective/preventive actions
- Responsible for executing various software development lifecycle (SDLC) activities including design verification, testing, and promotion
- Builds and maintains effective long-term relationships with internal and external customers and suppliers
- Operates within assigned budget and demonstrates fiscal responsibility
- This position requires periodic system administration outside normal business hours
- Software license administration
- Overall systems management
- Manage entire lab configuration to include documentation, installation, planning, configuration and evaluation of new hardware
- Collect and collate discrepancy report (DR) and system failure data, sort this data for differentiation of affected systems, and provide this data to the Government

Qualifications for cloud administrator

- Experience with Microsoft Federated Identity Management
- Experience with continuous integration deployments
- Experience using Windows PowerShell for scripting

- Experience with Amazon AWS services and/or Microsoft Azure