Our growing company is hiring for a commerce architect. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for commerce architect

- Gathering internal and external business partners requirements and translating them to technical solutions and systems design
- Document necessary architecture design and analysis work
- Working closely with the business, application and IT infrastructure teams, the candidate will analyze business and technical problems
- Construct a technical architecture of multiple solutions fitting client's industry standards, use cases, strategy and technical needs
- Work with technical leads to design a solution that optimally utilizes mobile apps, loyalty, CRM, eCommerce tools and supports clients use cases, strategy and industry standards
- Define API/integration strategy and design API/Integration architecture supporting non-functional requirements and client's architecture guiding principles
- Contribute to Customer's digital marketing strategies based on industry best practices
- Use the latest best practice learning from the industry to help Customers ensure that marketing campaigns and solutions are fully integrated and fine-tuned via data driven insights
- Assist with defining digital marketing Solution and Consulting scope during sales cycle
- Progress overall maturity and scale of Consulting Practice by creating and sharing knowledge in the form of whitepapers, best practices, methodologies, templates

- Management experience in an IT organization
- Experience with project management methods at a practitioner level
- 7-10 year of experience with implementing eCommerce systems
- Ability to travel to other countries for a couple of weeks in a row
- Minimum of five years of relevant work experience - preferably technology implementation experience
- Experience of both architecture methodologies Business Process Re-engineering (BPR) and Use Case and Scenario definition