

Example of Communications Project Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of communications project manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for communications project manager

- Ensuring updates of the required tools
- Organizing and maintaining an issue and risk log for the tactical plan, with responsible owners assigned
- Actively identify items for attention (including quality, timelines and fit to strategy)
- Propose required changes, remediation steps, supporting the assigned owners as required to build a plan to address
- Ensuring open and transparent communication and logging of issue and risks by the PLS teams and other partners
- Highlight to Team Leads (and where appropriate the customer) key issues and risks for attention and plans to remediate
- Ensuring required financial processes are followed for external spend
- Supporting delivery teams with required actions relating to external spend
- Supporting finance with required reporting on external spend
- Where agreed tracking other aspects of the plan delivered by other providers

Qualifications for communications project manager

- Expertise in Microsoft Project, issue-tracking software, and other online project management tools
- A minimum of 6 years' experience working as a project management lead
- Able to impeccably manage the smallest details while keeping the big picture

- Strong understanding of event, communications, and software development processes and performance management
- Must possess superior writing, quality control and proofreading skills
- Disclosures – Maintaining and managing disclosures associated with consumer deposit products (Rules and Regulations)