

Example of Communications Senior Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of communications senior manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for communications senior manager

- Support executive communications needs for the GCP COO as needed, including managing and coordinating event logistics and providing on-site support for various town halls and other large-scale events, internal memos to the organization
- Providing in-depth communications expertise and outstanding customer service to internal customers and other stakeholders
- Supporting development of best-in-class communication and engagement strategies, plans and tactics
- Designing communication strategy to support cross-Medical Unit (MU) knowledge sharing and other key strategic activities with broader USMA impact
- Lead activities to support the USMA brand, including development of branded communication roadshows, templates and other tools
- Contributing to innovation and process improvement by working with your manager and other team members to review and implement new, leading edge and streamlined communication and engagement strategies, plans and resources
- Developing and maintaining highly collaborative and productive relationships with internal customers, partners and other stakeholders
- Leading or otherwise participating in cross-functional strategic communications initiatives or forums - ensuring strategic alignment with overarching USMA communication strategies

- Regularly refining and honing your approach to work and deliverables in a manner consistent with continuous improvement

Qualifications for communications senior manager

- Outstanding writing skills relating to corporate announcements, news stories, executive speeches, talking point scripts, question/answer documents
- Expertise in mass distribution channels of communication, including corporate intranet, email, web conferencing, webcasting
- Understanding of sensitivities and nuances on multiple issues and involving different stakeholders
- Leadership abilities to influence others and build consensus
- Excellent project planning and management to work on multiple projects simultaneously
- Strategic thinking, solid data analysis and strong decision making