

Example of Community Manager, Community Development Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is hiring for a community manager, community development. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for community manager, community development

- Participates in training design with the training department and others to educate appropriate staff on re-engineered or new products to support effective introductions of new initiatives
- Analyze, identify and mitigate potential construction risks, and ensure the project will maintain compliance during the Historic Tax Credit compliance period
- Work closely with the Project Team members, Chase Credit, and Legal on distressed projects
- Develop EVP meeting agendas and maintain executive calendars, keep the team running on time and on message
- Anticipate, identify and raise issues and trends affecting product development
- Launch GM Student Corps externally and internally
- Lead all storytelling and content development, including press releases, social media, presentations, video series, infographics, internal storytelling, messaging
- Lead media and social outreach strategy and execution
- Lead teams in large-scale event planning, including media announcements
- Provide ongoing media and presentation counsel to staff

Qualifications for community manager, community development

- Knowledge of community working and placement education
- Demonstrated success leading outside sales teams required
- Telecommunications or other technology industry experience highly preferred
- 3-5 years' experience in Community Development
- Ability to establish effective relationships with external organizations based on clear communication, transparency and mutual understanding