

Example of Compounding Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a compounding. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for compounding

- Inspecting and sorting off quality product when needed
- Operating lift truck, overhead crane, hoist
- Provide supervisory support across three shifts
- Write investigations and CAPA actions for non-conformances for Bulk and Gamma departments
- Develop scope and process letters for improvement projects in the Vectra, Utilities, and Solid State units
- Responsible for identifying and implementing key performance indicators for site utilities and main technical contact for troubleshooting and support
- Tracks unit on-stream reliability, asset utilization, efficiencies and energy usage for utilities
- Responsible for energy usage and optimization
- Active role in Process Safety elements from Vectra and Utilities
- Leads PSSRs and PHAs on new installations and modifications in Vectra and Utilities

Qualifications for compounding

- Must be able to pass the IVC-US color vision test
- Performing the duties of this job requires the employee to stand for long periods of time
- Vision abilities required by the job include color vision, close vision, distance

- Leads RCA's for process safety incidents
- Designs and optimizes production processes such as batch to batch optimization, early vacuum and others