

Example of Compounding Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a compounding. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for compounding

- Perform all functions safely within the compounding areas
- Accurate maintenance and reporting of all required environmental and regulatory records
- Able to work 12-hour rotating shifts schedules including weekends
- Able to work on elevated heights, climb stairs and ladders, and to lift 55 lb
- Strong equipment and mechanical skills - ability to troubleshoot issues
- Maintains current process for downloading of bulk materials, Consumables
- Efficiently multi-tasks the mixing tower operations and needs throughout the mixing process
- Prepares necessary paperwork on reporting and follow-up
- Must collaborate with other production departments, such as coating, printing, quality, shipment and maintenance in order to assure overall smooth functioning
- Must exhibit the overall discipline and neatness on the work floor

Qualifications for compounding

- BS Chemical Engineer
- Demonstrated 2 years of experience in a chemical manufacturing facility
- Experience with determining process equipment specifications and sizing
- Root cause analysis and statistical methods
- High level of engagement on safety programs
- Knowledge of process safety elements