Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a consultant & principal. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for consultant & principal

- Certified Cloud professional, Certified Architect
- Collaborates with HR, Nursing, Operations, and other functional leaders to identify opportunities to deploy the RDT
- Drives integration of RN Retention, Patient Experience, Nursing Operations strategies, tools, and standard practices in the field
- Socializes project results and products developed with leadership
- Understand utility business issues and their underling drivers
- Serve as technical lead on all projects sold and delivered
- Follow all methodologies in your area of expertise
- Assist in updating methodologies quarterly (at minimum)
- Successfully deliver in area of expertise
- Maintain high technical competency on all engagements providing noticeable quality and technical expertise over our competition

Qualifications for consultant & principal

- A good understanding of corporate IT environments – systems, infrastructure, networks, security, policies
- Hands on Experience for Integration setup with EBS, WMS or SAP
- Support Activities like debugging logs, exceptions and errors
- Minimum 2 years digital data analytics with large digital data sets
- Proven experience using your digital analytics skills to identify customer behavior insights and translating data analysis into actionable marketing

- Strong preference for person to be located in Salt Lake City UT, Denver CO, Chicago IL or New York City NY area