

Example of Corporate Engineering Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a corporate engineering. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for corporate engineering

- Partner with field engineering and maintenance staff to improve facility maintenance and equipment reliability (Preventative Maintenance Computerized Systems & Total Productive Maintenance Programs)
- Direct Strategic Facility Planning initiative for Supply
- Direct development of facility asset stewardship programs
- Develop and support energy management and utility cost control initiatives
- Reduce negative impact from regulatory compliance issues (OSHA, EPA, FDA)
- Complete periodic audits to assess effectiveness of facility programs
- Develop policies, practices and procedures that improve reliability
- Develop equipment maintenance and reliability strategies
- Define and execute improvement projects (capital, 6 sigma,) across the Network
- Prepare reports and make appropriate recommendations to management

Qualifications for corporate engineering

- Possess or in the final year of pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Chemical or Mechanical Engineering from an accredited program
- Possess or in the final year of pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering, Chemical Engineering, or Electrical Engineering from an accredited program
- Currently possess or in the final year of pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Chemical, Electrical or Mechanical Engineering from an accredited program
- 9 to 12 years of experience plus the education listed above

disciplines

- 5 years experience in supervising others with emphasis in managing by influence