

Example of Corporate Finance Analyst Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of corporate finance analyst. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for corporate finance analyst

- Exhibit an understanding of data metrics pertaining to all aspects of Finance, to be able to analyze and interpret trends
- Perform all other adhoc reporting to support management for special projects
- Coming up with value add matrix structure to analyze and present BU's cost structure and areas of improvement
- Work closely with other areas within Controllers, both in Singapore and globally, with other divisions
- Client interaction and process / relationship management at multiple levels
- Valuation analysis and financial modeling participation
- Coordinate with regions/functional units globally to complete monthly/quarterly close, resolve issues and perform other analyses/projects
- Prepare reporting packages for management, which include consolidated results packages
- Assist in preparation of SEC footnote disclosures
- Identify/correct inconsistent data, solve problems and develop new methods of analysis

Qualifications for corporate finance analyst

- A minimum of 2+ years experience in financial analysis, modeling, budgeting and business planning in Corporate Finance / FP&A at either a high-growth tech startup or a large, well-established company
- At least 5+ years of previous Auto Finance Retail Underwriting experience preferred
- Candidate must possess a full understanding of all aspects of the Auto Finance business (Consumer, Commercial, CSG, Funding, Remarketing, Servicing...etc.)
- Automotive experience including sales, strategy development, project leadership