Our company is looking to fill the role of corporate security. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for corporate security

- Collect, research and analyze all data related to Retail Loss Prevention, Physical Security and Corporate Investigations
- Maintain a liaison with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Dept
- Serves as the security incident manager as required
- Plans, organizes and conducts difficult and complex investigations of alleged/suspected violations of company policy, laws and regulations concerning criminal and general investigations with minimal supervision
- Subject matter expert (SME) across the entire IT stack diverse IT systems, networking and security components, applications, and operating systems
- Provides technical advice and/or consultation to those who install, administer, and update computer-based access control systems and other information systems
- Directly supervise PG&E Contract Security Control Operators who serve as shift leaders to contract security operators during a 24 hourper day operation
- Influence and gain support for security initiatives that will yield significant business impacts
- Responsible for the construction, modification, and decommissioning of all security equipment in the COF enterprise facilities
- Engage with industry peers to initiate and or engage in benchmarking opportunities/exercise's to understand changes in the industry

Qualifications for corporate security

- Experience in developing and implementing security policies and procedures,

- Ability to travel within the region and to the US as projects mandate
- Must be a self-starter with the ability to think strategically and deliver programs and services in an operationally pragmatic manner
- Ability to work both independently, part of a team and/or to play a leadership role on projects or assignments
- Thorough knowledge of the development process, including agile development methodologies
- Excellent synthesis and analysis capabilities