

Example of Corporate Security Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for a corporate security. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for corporate security

- Address issues associated with security technology and technology design across the company and require interaction with internal and external clients in order to gather information to determine causes and possible solutions
- Manage and develop a technology and CS team and oversee vendor relationships in the region
- Maintains strong, professional relationships with relevant representatives from competitor hotels, business partners and other organizations
- Liaise and closely collaborate with internal Legal and Business departments in identifying BICS' obligation with respect to the various laws and regulations
- Identify and analyse the requirements of new tooling to support LEA requests
- Identify and analyse the changed capabilities of existing tooling to support LEA requests
- Participate in the requirements definition and validation of new acquired platforms and software with a focus on the support of LEA requests
- Determine, develop and execute all operational procedures and processes to support LEA requests
- Coordinate requests and ensure daily liaison with security operations engineers
- Take responsibility for the analysis and timely response to inquiries of Law Enforcement Agencies

Qualifications for corporate security

- Bachelor's Degree with emphasis in Criminal Justice, Law, Security

- Periodic domestic travel required travel to Mexico
- Excellent communication and instructional skills catered towards the adult learner
- Track, record and design a successful training program for Security Professionals
- Prior security training background is helpful, but not required