

Example of Crew Chief Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of crew chief. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for crew chief

- Monitoring performance of Technicians
- Must have an extensive knowledge of the Company's products and services
- Knowledge of products, services and equipment, knowledge on hydraulics, pneumatics, electrical controls
- Responsible for providing adequate data to complete the Reports (hours spent and parts used) for each individual Piece of equipment
- The thorough testing of equipment before it is released for operational work
- Supervise quality control processes to track, maintain and improve customer service to prevent service failures
- Ability to push and pull with arms up to a force of 20 pounds
- Ability to grasp, reach and manipulate objects with hands throughout workday
- Consistently observe and enforce all USAF and host nation explosives safety, AFOSH, and security standards during all explosives and non-explosives operations in assigned sites and TDY locations
- Ensure pre-task safety crew briefings are accomplished before the start of any munitions operation

Qualifications for crew chief

- Ability to lift 50 lbs., climb a ladder up to 15 ft
- May work outside with temperatures exceeding 120 degrees Fahrenheit in an austere environment
- May work in an aircraft maintenance hangar

- May be exposed to extreme noise from turbine engine aircraft
- Must be able to differentiate and identify colors