

Example of CT Technologist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a CT technologist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for CT technologist

- The technologist performs CT procedures with guidelines established by this institution, the equipment manufacturer and/or radiation safety guidelines established by the Texas Department of Health
- Performs complex specialized tasks associated with the operation of CT scanners and related equipment in accordance with prescribed radiation safety procedures
- Performs those duties directly involved with a variety of technical procedures utilizing ionizing radiation and Computerized Axial Tomography for the purpose of detecting pathology
- CT duties along w/RT will be required
- Ensures Patient Safety, including pre-screening for contra-indications to radiation and contrast injections
- Produces high quality diagnostic images
- Perform all phases of cross sectional imaging
- Clean and disinfect CT/T room and equipment
- Correlate specialized examinations with other departments Special procedures, Cytology
- Enter all patient data into RAD ASSESSMENT for radiologist dictation

Qualifications for CT technologist

- Associates degree in radiologic technology
- Two (2) or more years of imaging experience is preferred technologist will complete advanced ARRT registration in CT within one year

- Registered with the ARRT(CT)/ Current FL license as General Radiographer/BLS
- This position is full-time evenings and does require call
- ARRT certification with advanced certification in CT required